EUROPA-PARK RUST

20.10.2010

Around 3.000 children, students from different schools, from Baden-Wuerttemberg, Germany, and the neighbouring province Alsace, France, will join together in the largest and most popular theme park in Germany to appeal to the adults, the decision makers of society for a better world in peace and in harmony with the wonderful diversity we have in this world, free from racial, cultural and religious barriers, free from violence, free from hunger and free from discrimination.

The famous TV-presenter, Pete Dwojak, will lead through the program where the children present their ideas for a better world in various forms:

- Under the direction of the internationally known choirmaster, Gotthilf Fischer, the children will perform a world premier of the peace anthem "All the Children of the World" composed by Galileo. They will be accompanied by well-known artists such as Monrose, Lucy (No Angels), Sternblut, Galileo, Lou Hoeffner.
- 3000 balloons will be released carrying their ideas and wishes on attached postcards out into the world so that their voices will be heard everywhere.

Gotthilf Fischer and his colleague Thomas Preiss, the National Youth Choir Director, will create with the children a bouquet of "Choral Highlights".

Fischer's life work message "Let the world sing - not fight", "Singing unites young and old, black and white, building bridges between people and nations" is part of the basic ideas of ONE WORLD FAMILY and promotes its target to achieve peace and harmony in diversity in this world.

Europa-Park Rust provides the platform on 20.10.2010 for this exceptional event.

Following the main program the children will have the opportunity to enjoy the theme park. The participating music artists will continue to perform in the afternoon individually on different stages throughout the park. For the Grand Finale children and artists will reunite and once again join in singing the peace anthem "All the Children of the World".

TOGETHER WE CAN

A ONE WORLD FAMILY video clip invites children on websites like Youtube and other youth-related web-communities to share their ideas and wishes and their appeal to the adults and decision makers and mail it to info@oneworldfamily.eu. Each participant will receive 10 free song downloads from the Flatster music website.

The content and timing of the event is orchestrated by the Stuttgart Media Entrepreneur Rolf Deyhle and Hans-Martin Schempp, CEO Makro-Medien-Dienst GmbH, Ostfildern, with the support of the well experienced and competent staff from Europa-Park Rust.

Dr. Ute-Henriette Ohoven, the UNESCO special ambassador worldwide, will be patron to the participating children. Furthermore close collaboration is intended with the UNESCO Foundation - Education for Children in Need, Duesseldorf.

The entire event is organized and funded by sponsors, which includes:

Makro-Medien-Dienst GmbH (Initiator)	Transport of children and staff, providing personnel, services and materials required, Insurances, PR
